

INFORMATION AND FAQ'S

Entering Mexico

You will need a PASSPORT to Enter Mexico as of January 2007. This includes infants and small children.

Getting Around

Car Rentals. You may make your reservation online. Major rental companies include: Avis, Hertz, and Budget.

Only the Mexican insurance is accepted in Mexico, which you will need to purchase upon arrival.

Gas Stations

Pemex stations are plentiful along the highway. It is best to pay for gas with pesos, since the gas stations have a very low exchange rate.

Before they begin pumping, make sure the pump reads zero.

Also, be sure to check that the amount you are paying for is the same amount that reads on the meter after pumping.

Money Exchange

Larger businesses like hotels will accept credit cards, while only some restaurants and smaller businesses will.

Blue Sky Hotel Restaurant accepts credit cards

Casa de Cambio or an Exchange House found in Tulum. Also give a great exchange rate with no line-ups. There are Casa de Cambio in Cancun, Playa del Carmen, Akumal.

Phoning Home

Many guests bring their own cell phones that have an international service.

Blue Sky Hotel now has VONAGE Phone service - Free for guests to call home.

Gratuities

Gratuities are very appreciated by House Man and Maid during or at the end of your stay. The average tip is $5.00 per night. Of course you should do what feels right for you; we only give this as a guideline because we are often asked.

Our restaurant and bar staff are the very best - please remember to take care of them as well. I am sure you are going to get the very best service in Mexico at the Blue Sky Restaurant.

Airport Transfer

We can arrange for a vehicle to pick you up at the Cancun International Airport and take you directly to Blue Sky Hotel. The same driver can pick you at the Hotel and return you to the airport for your departure.

Some guests find it easier to have a driver deal with the one hour drive. Then taxi to Tulum and rent a car for day trips and touring the local beaches and Mayan Ruins.

We work in partnership with:

We have worked with Best Transfers for a number of years we have found them to be an extremely trustworthy. We would commend them without hesitation.
